

Vaisakhi Treasure Hunt

Vaheguru Jee Ka Khalsa Vaheguru Jee Kee Fateh

I cannot tell you how happy I am to share this little family tradition with you!

Here are some tips/rules—feel free to amend according to your own hunt:

1. The success of this hunt is dependent on you! You MUST know exactly what you are doing and what your expectations are—from the children. If you are confused or don't know what's next, it will take away the excitement.
2. Even if you think the children do not understand, they are still being exposed to Sikhi and will be taking in the questions and answers
3. If the children do not know the answer to a question, use charades to help give them clues. Let yourself be goofy!
4. Set a timer to add more of a challenge
5. Have a sheet of paper for you with the questions and answers and the answer to where the clues are, in case you forget! (tick off as you go along)
6. Have a treat afterwards for the reward. Doesn't have to be a present. Could be games night, movie night, or art & craft time!
7. The more excitement and urgency you show throughout the hunt, the more they will enjoy. If you are just plodding along—they will not rush to hunt for the next clue—and it can become boring for them!

I really hope you and the family / or campers enjoy it as much as we do every year!

Happy Vaisakhi Everyone!

Love

@sikhmum

Vaisakhi Treasure Hunt

Set a timer to make it more of a challenge

Suitable for 2—8 years old (will depend on child(rens) knowledge level)

Questions	Answers	Clue to next question
First Question to be read by the time keeper: What is the name of the first Guru?	Guru Nanak Dev Jee	Input the location or to make it more complex, a clue to the location. For example, for the garden shed – where we keep the tools to garden with
What is the colour of the Nishan Sahib?	Orange or blue
What do Sikhs wear on their wrist?	Iron Kara
When we go to the Gurdwara we always take off our x?	Shoes (&/or Socks)
At the Gurdwara there is a nice sweet food or offering. What is it called?	Degh or Karah Prashad
What religion was Sundri before she become a Sikh?	Hindu
Sikhs love...?	Everyone or Guru Jee or Vaheguru
Sikhs who have taken Amrit cover their head with?	Keski or patka
Sikhs always say and remember...?	Vaheguru
When you take Amrit, you become Guru Gobind Singh Jees...?	Prince or Princess
Where is Vaheguru?	Everywhere and inside us	